FitBuddy

Customer Journey Map

Primary user: a person who wants a clear, personalized fitness routine | Ideation assumption; validate with users

1. [illegible]	2. [illegible]	3. [illegible]	4. [illegible]	5. [illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

USER NEEDS ALONG THE JOURNEY

A clear starting point | Relevant suggestions | Easy-to-follow plan | Simple feedback loop | Confidence and control

SUCCESS INDICATORS TO VALIDATE

Can users complete the form? Do they understand the plan? Can they find and use feedback?
Do revised plans feel more suitable? Track completion, questions, and drop-off during user testing.

Based on the FitBuddy project brief. Journey stages and feelings are hypotheses, not research findings.